BUYING FOR EUROPE SWINGS HEAT

Early Depression at Chicago Short Lived When Export News Appears.

CHICAGO, Dec. 21.—Assertions that more than 1,000,000 bushels had been bought for shipment to Europe did a great deal to-day to lift prices in the wheat market here.

The fact that a considerable part of the foreign purchasing was to be filled by shipments from the Gulf States to Mexico tended to make the advance of the wheat market rather brisk at the last.

Provisions were dull, but for the most part held fairly steady in line with hog values.

Our Booklet "The New South"

THERE is no more interesting record of achievement than the remarkable progress of the Southern States during the past half century.

In our booklet, "The New South," we have endeavored to give a comprehensive idea of this marvelous economic and financial growth.

All these subjects have a direct bearing on investment possibilities of the Southern States, and will be of equal interest to individual investors, bond houses, banks and corporations.
